Dear Pastor Terri:

Thank you for the spiritual teaching and leading you gave us today in the Prayer Leaders meeting. You are such an encouragement to our growth spiritually and in ways that feature all of life.

There was one set of words you used that captured my mind as a really good title for use as an article or a column in the Newsletter or for a book you might compose. The words were, "Gaining Mastery Over Our Daily-ness."

The more I pondered them and what you said about them, it seemed incumbent upon me to remind you of them and to encourage you to use them to entitle a teaching piece you could compose or as an on-going column in the Prayer Newsletter.

Blessings upon you and your family in these times of you're moving into new quarters.

Yours in Christ,
